BENBOW SALE STOPPED.

Commissioner Enjoined by Petition
of Southern Loan and Trust Co.

The sale of the property of Dr. D. W. C. Benbow, which was to have taken place today, was stopped by a telegram from Judge Ewart, judge of the Western District of North Carolina, saying that he had granted a restraining order, upon the petition of the Southern Loan and Trust Company, trustees in bankruptcy, of Dr. Benbow.

We understand that the trustees claim in their petition that the commissioner, C. P. Frazier, appointed by an order of the Superior court to sell the property, could not sell the same and give the title for the reason that the title, under the bankruptcy act, is vested in the Southern Loan and Trust Company, as trustee to Dr. Benbow; and that the bankrupt court has charge of the property, and upon application made by the trustee to sell the property and the assets or proceeds of the sale will be distributed among the creditors by order of the bankrupt court.

The sale referred to was ordered by the Superior court at the June term, by virtue of a decree taken in five actions, by creditors, against Dr. Benbow and J. S. Cox, his assignee, the decree declaring the deed of assignment, heretofore executed by Dr. Benbow to Mr. Cox, fraudulent and void. The Southern Loan and Trust Company was represented by Maj. L. M. Scott and John N. Wilson, through whom the injunction was secured today.

THE TRACK STRAIGHTENED.

Other Changes and Improvements to be Made Soon.

Trains coming in on the Southern main line will now make almost a bee line from the coal chute to Davis street, or vice versa, the track having been straightened today. This arrangement, which is the best that could be made, makes a considerable curve just east of the Davis street crossing, but the new way is a decided improvement upon the curve which was made on South Elm.

The Southern will doubtless soon have things almost perfect around the depot and the station will be one of the handsomest and most convenient along the line. As stated in the Telegram some time ago, the turn table and short tracks, which are now located at the intersection of South Elm and Fayetteville streets, will be removed to a point near the coal chute and the engine cleaning and repairing will not be done in so public a place. The Atlantic & Yadkin trains will then be run to and from the new depot.

And then, you know, the Southern is going to give Greensboro that modern shed over the tracks and Greensboro will be proud.

MORE SOLDIERS.

Six Men Leave Tonight for Vancouver Barracks.

Six more soldiers who have contracted with Uncle Samuel to go to the Philippines and kill or be killed, will leave tonight for Vancouver Barracks, just across the Washington line from Portland, Oregon, to report for duty. They enlisted for service in the Thirty-fifth Volunteer regiment which will be sent to the Philippines as soon as it is recruited to the required number. The Twenty-seventh regiment, at Camp Meade, Pa., to which all men enlisted at the office here have been sent, is full and the men now have their choice between San Antonio, Texas, and Vancouver, Washington. Those who leave for the latter place tonight are: Oscar C. Morrow, of Center; Robt. M. Goodman, of Concord; Chas. F. Eastep, of Mocksville; Lester P. Gray, of Charlotte; Henry V. Briscoe, of Brown's Mill, and Chas. C. Owen, of Danville.

WINSTEAD PROPERTY SOLD.

Bid Off by W. S. Bradsher, of Roxboro, for $4,500.

The Winstead property, on West Market street, was sold by auction at the court house today. The property was bid off by W. S. Bradsher, of Roxboro, for $4,500. Jas. R. Pearus was auctioneer.

The property was sold under a mortgage issued by Maj. J. M. Winstead, since deceased, to his brother, Col. Chas. S. Winstead.

The Winstead home is one of the most beautiful in the city. The property is situated on the corner of West Market and North Edgeworth streets and adjoins that of that of the Academy of Music. It is thought that Mr. Bradsher purchased it for a Durham party.

Striped hemp carpet, 12 1/2 cents, fancy cottage carpet, 20 cents, cotton and jute combination carpets, 25 cents, special styles in half wool extra super carpets, 35 cents, a dozen good styles union ingrain carpets, 40, 40 1/2 and 45 cents, and a magnificent line of strictly all wool ingrain at 50, 55 and 60 cents, at Thacker & Brockmann's. All these carpets are full yard wide.

THE REBELS IN A GOOD FIX.

Well Supplied With Arms, Ammunition and Provisions.

THE GREAT TRIAL OF DREYFUS

Is Now Beginning At Rennes—The Prisoner Arraigned—'I Am Innocent,' He Said.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Maula, August 7.—The rebels succeeded in eluding Odis' officers and transferred three Americans and seventy Spaniards from Cavite province to Batua. They placed the prisoners in cocoons Wednesday night, towing them in with a steam launch past the guns of Corregida island without being discovered. Daniel Garcia, a wealthy planter among the prisoners, escaped and got to our lines. He says the rebels are well supplied with arms, ammunition and provisions. They secured many tons of canned food from the transport Centennial when she went ashore. They also secured a large number of American soldiers' uniforms, which some of the insurgents dressed themselves in.

SOLDIERS FOR THE FRONT.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, August 7.—Troops A, D, and M, Third cavalry, left Fort Myer, Va., today for Seattle, whence the men will embark for Manila. Five other troops of the Third will join the command at Seattle.

TRIAL OF DREYFUS.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Rennes, August 6.—The hall for the Dreyfus trial was thrown open before seven this morning and the roll of members called. Soon afterwards Dreyfus was brought in. Every precaution was taken against provoking any violent demonstration. Dreyfus entered the room with an affable smile. His face was more tranquil than usual. The arrangements made for the prisoner were little more than formality.

After reading the bordereau, Dreyfus was asked if he recognized it. He did not, that it was not his work. He said: "Upon my honor, and upon everything I hold dear, my country and my children, I am innocent."

JUMPED WITHOUT REVERSING.

Terrible Indignation Against Motor-man Hamilton.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Bridgeport, Conn., August 6.—There is growing indignation today because of the non-arrest of Motor-man Hamilton, whose car jumped from the bridge. The condition of the car's mechanism shows that Hamilton jumped from the car without reversing the power or applying the brakes. Public opinion against Hamilton is at fever heat and all consider him to blame for the frightful loss of life. Threats against him are loud and the police have taken precautions to protect him.

TWENTY NINE KILLED.

Bridgeport, Conn., August 7.—A revised list makes twenty-nine dead and twelve injured, of whom seven will probably die. The coroner has begun a strict investigation. Steps are being taken by friends of the deceased to bring suit against the road.

TWENTY BODIES FOUND.

The Search for the Drowned Excursionists Continues.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Bar Harbor, August 7.—The search for the bodies of the drowned excursionists was continued this morning. Twenty have already been recovered. Fifty injured are being cared for at Hotel Bluffs. Ten are still reported missing.

Bertram and Willard's Leave.

Messrs. Bertram and Willard, authors of "Captain Dick," "The Midnight Fire," and "The Singin' Skule," all of which plays have been presented in Greensboro, each time to a packed house, left Saturday night for their home in New York City. There they will spend a six weeks vacation before starting out for another season.

Messrs. Bertram and Willard are clever gentlemen of the strictest integrity, and during their stay in North Carolina, and Greensboro especially, have made many warm friends, who regret exceedingly to see them leave but wish them unbounded success in their future work.

Mr. McAllister Buys Glenn Property.

A. W. McAllister today purchased the R. G. Glenn property, corner of West Market and South Spring streets. Mr. McAllister purchased the property for himself and will move into his new house at an early date. It is not known to what place Mr. Glenn and Prof. Claxton, who now occupy the residence jointly will remove, but it is understood that Mr. Glenn will not leave Greensboro, and certainly Prof. Claxton will not.

The property is among the most valuable residence property in the city.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU
HIGH POINT, N. C., August 7.

Jos. Worth, Jr., returned home from the north this morning.

Artist D. L. Clark represents High Point in Greensboro today.

C. M. Crawford spent yesterday with his father at Burlington.

Ernest Herndon and Vornie Hedgecock spent Sunday in Greensboro.

Dr. A. P. Staley went to Asheboro on professional business this morning.

Welborn Meredith returned from his home in Kernersville this morning.

Frank Dalton, of Greensboro and High Point, is a guest of this city today.

Clyde Curlee, clerk in the depot at Winston, spent yesterday at his home here.

Miss Lottie Crutchfield, of Siler City, is spending the week with Mrs. J. E. Jones.

Miss Laura Otterberg, of Greensboro, is visiting the family of J. A. Peacock.

Dennis H. Hall went to Salisbury this morning to do some work in his line—plastering.

Delegates to the yearly meeting which convenes here Wednesday have commenced to arrive.

Misses Iola and Alice Hilliard who attend the Greensboro festivities returned home Saturday night.

Miss Jessie Rankin who has been visiting Miss Jessie Henley in Greensboro, returned home on this evening's train.

The framing for W. A. Ring's dwelling on Steel street is in place and work on the structure is being pushed rapidly.

Glad to learn that the condition of J. D. Mann, who has been critically ill for some time, is considered hopeful today.

Mr. and Mrs. Castor left Saturday night for a visit to relatives at Concord. Sorry to hear that Mr. Castor is slightly indisposed.

W. J. Armfield and son Jesse went to Thomasville this morning on business connected with the new bank established at that place.

The Presbyterian church has granted their pastor, Rev. J. W. Goodman, a month's vacation, which he will spend at his home in Virginia.

A B. Sapp's residence presents an imposing appearance since the carpenters have finished and the scaffolds, etc., cleared away.

Remember that the excursion from Asheboro to Wilmington by the beautiful Goldsboro route, will be run the 18th of this month. Get ready to go. The fare from High Point is only $2.00.

D. B. Bodenhamer, our clever liverlyman, has made some alterations at his stable in the last two days which will add to the convenience of that place. He has also purchased some nice horses and is ready to serve you.

WOODWARD MUST RESIGN.

Promised to Reform, but his Weakness Got the Best of Him.

Atlanta, August 5.—On a vote of 17 to 3, the resignation of Mayor James G. Woodward, of this city, was asked for at a secret caucus of the city council and board of aldermen, held this afternoon. Mayor Woodward was charged with drunkenness several weeks ago, when impeachment proceedings were threatened. At the time the mayor promised to reform, but it is now charged that he has broken faith with the city council.

According to the resolution, the resignation must be in by Monday morning. Upon failure it is probable impeachment proceedings will be instituted. At the caucus it was intimated by Councilman Parks that persons who wanted certain measures passed to which it was known Mayor Woodward was opposed, were behind his conduct.

George Stroud Caught.

Chief of Police Scott and officers Pearce and Jordan this morning succeeded in capturing George Stroud, a negro who about three weeks ago cut Press Cole, a colored hack driver, with a knife. Stroud is a sharp coon and had remained in the city ever since the scrap, without being caught. The officers located him on Cotton Row this morning, however, and now the slasher occupies a berth in the jail.

G. F. College Notes.

Dr. Dred Peacock returned Saturday night from Morganton, where he attended the district conference in the interest of Greensboro Female College. Rev. T. A. Smoot returned at noon from Trinity where he preached yesterday to the Randolph county Sunday school convention.

Nell—"Mr. Stalate said something real clever last evening." Belle—"Was it apropos?" "Yes—a probable posal."

POSTMASTERS' CONVENTION

At Washington Will Probably Be Largely Attended.

APPOINTMENT OF MISS DARBY

Postmaster at Wilmington Received With Much Satisfaction By Washington Carolinians.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, August 7.—The annual convention of the national association of postmasters which assembles at the national capital will, according to the present indications, be largely attended. On account of the proximity of Washington there will be an especially large attendance of postmasters from the southern states.

The postoffice department through Postmaster General Smith is doing all that it can do consistently with the rules of the department to make the convention a success. In order to secure as large an attendance as possible Acting Assistant Postmaster General Heath has just issued an order to the effect that all postmasters who wish to attend the convention will be granted one week's leave of absence upon application to the department. Of course this will exclude a large attendance from the very distant states, but from states in the east and south the time allotted for leave will be ample. There will be a very large attendance of postmasters from such states as Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and North Carolina.

During the convention many subjects of interest to the postmasters of the country will be discussed. Many of the questions discussed will relate to the extension of postal facilities to the rural sections of the country. The convention assembles Tuesday, November 7th, and will continue until Friday, November 10th. The railroads will offer a reduced rate of fare to postmasters who desire to come to Washington at that time, and it is also likely that reduced rates for the delegates will be secured from the hotels of the national capital.

The announcement of Attorney General Montague, of Virginia, that he will not take the stump for Governor Tyler in his senatorial campaign is a disappointment to many of Governor Tyler's friends in this city. Attorney General Montague is said to be in favor of the election of Governor Tyler to succeed Senator Martin, and is in favor of the election of United States senators by a party primary, but bases his declaration to go upon the ground that he does not consider it consistent with the duties of a public official of the state to take part actively in a political contest where the contest is within party lines, unless the public officer is a candidate for an office. It is admitted that there is much truth in this statement of Attorney General Montague, and outside of a few disappointed politicians, his decision is generally applauded by Virginia people.

From information received in this city it is learned that Chaplain George P. Van Wyck, of the United States army, retired, had a stroke of paralysis last Wednesday at his country home in Milford, Pennsylvania. Chaplain Van Wyck is one of the best known officers of the army on the retired list and has a large circle of friends in Washington where he resided for a number of years. He is a brother of the late Senator Charles Van Wyck, of Nebraska, who suffered a stroke of a similar nature. From the information received here it is feared that Chaplain Van Wyck may not recover. He is quite an old man, which fact makes his recovery from a stroke of paralysis very doubtful.

During the coming fall Charles' on, South Carolina, is to have an automobile show which will be something of a novelty at this time. The show is to be under the management of John Woerner, Jr., of this city, who has had much experience in bicycle, automobile shows, etc.

The appointment of Miss Mary C. Darby as postmaster at Wilmington, North Carolina, is received with much satisfaction by North Carolina people in Washington, many of whom feared that the appointment, in spite of the assurances given, might go to French who, it is understood, was the first choice of Senator Pritchard.

J. F. Davenport has been appointed postmaster at Pactolus, Pitt county, North Carolina, vice J. T. Mobley, resigned.

Jeremiah K. Reynolds has been commissioned postmaster at McLaurin, North Carolina.

Mattie Mast has been commissioned postmaster at Sugar Grove.

Postoffice at Dongola, Pitt county, has been discontinued. Mail goes to Farmville.

Mr. E. F. Aydtlett, wife and children are in the city for a day or two stopping at the St. James Hotel.

H. T. Ham, of Mt. Olive, North Carolina, was at the Metropolitan Hotel Sunday.

BRIEF AND PITHY

News of the Old North State Taken From our Exchanges.

The revenue receipts at Durham for July was $147,000.

W. P. Noles, one of the best known citizens of Gastonia, died at 1 o'clock last Saturday.

Robert L. Abernethy writes to the Charlotte Observer favoring General Julian S. Carr for U. S. Senator.

The recent rains have improved the crops in this section far beyond expectations. Corn never looked better and tobacco is coming out alright.—Walnut Cove Argus.

Durham is to sue the Southern Railway, the question involved being the ownership of Peabody street. Several years ago the city brought suit against the Richmond & Danville, then the lessee of the North Carolina road, to decide the ownership of this street. The matter was finally settled in favor of the city. Now that the North Carolina road has passed into the hands of the Southern, that company claims that the decision of the courts affected only the Richmond & Danville road, and not the Southern or North Carolina road. The city wants the matter settled once for all, hence this suit.

RUMOR OF A BIG ENTERPRISE.

The Walnut Cove Argus enthusiastically claims to have reliable information that the McGill water site near that place will be bought by a northern firm for the purpose of erecting an electric plant by which electric cars will be run to Danbury, a distance of ten miles, thus reaching the heart of Stokes, one of the richest counties in North Carolina in undeveloped resources. The Argus says:

We predict for Stokes county one of the greatest futures of any county in the state of North Carolina. She far exceeds many of the other counties in natural resources, such as iron ore, coal, mica and granite in immense quantities, timber of all ordinary kinds, water power for manufacturing enterprises and the finest mineral springs in the south. All these, with a genial climate with its scenic resources, the tall gray cliffs and deep ravines, sparkling brooks and noble rivers, its wooded rivers and fertile plow lands, with many other advantages too numerous to mention, will bring the capitalists and business men this way whither we wake from our lethargy and advertise our advantages.

It is rumored that the island of Luzon will be divided into several military departments under independent generals. A wholesale, new organization of the war program wouldn't be a bad thing we are sure. And we hope McKinley will remember to put in commanders who are capable of heavier work than the making of contracts for thatched barracks and the signing of permits for the landing of boxes of candies, etc., and whose geniuses lie in other directions than successful news-censoring. Oils should be assigned an acre of territory in some region where he can't perceive the enemy for the number of his own troops.

The assurance by our sovereign lord and master, your Uncle Sam, that he has not of recent years forgotten the teachings of his tutors, such as Washington and Jefferson, and degenerated into a man of venality and conquest, and that by trying to shoot submission into the poor Philippine devils, he is only holding what is justly his own, is believed no more at home than abroad where the move of the South American republics toward combined organization for mutual protection against his encroaching hand indicates that our liege's veracity is generally below par.

As an instance of "keeping cool" at critical moments, an exchange relates the following:

As an illustration of the value of "keeping cool" at critical moments, the Eastern Shore Herald relates the following experience: "We once sat by the bedside of a friend supposed to be dying under exciting circumstances, and everybody but himself was excited. He took a pencil and wrote, 'Keep cool.' He is today one of the big men of the State."

The city of Rennes, France, where Dreyfus is to be tried, is taking on a most animated appearance as the great event approaches. Journalists and men of prominence from all parts of the world are flocking to the scene, and the civilized part of the globe will watch every phase of the trial proceedings with absorbing interest.

The editorial note in Saturday's Telegram referring to "an ably written editorial, signed E. Pluribus Unum," should have read "an ably written editorial, E. Pluribus Unum," which was intended to mean "one of many" good editorials in the Post.

An eight-legged calf was born in Mitchell county the other day. This whimsical freak of nature is a deal more uncommon than the two-legged swine.

"THE MORE EXCELLENT WAY."

Standing in Christ's Presence and Mirroring His Character.

We have heard endless controversy on the subject of sanctification and the preachers tell us how the end may be attained—by trying to be like Christ. This way may be futile. No man can be like Christ until he is changed and this change is never the result of human effort; but, by the spirit of God—Christ—dwelling in the heart. Many ways are tried by men,—all ending in failure. Henry Drummond writes of the method, "The more excellent way," in these words: "There is one method which is as effectual and simple as others are complicated and useless. It is laid down in a single verse in the Bible; and it is so practical that any man can apply it to his own life, and as certain in its action as a law of Nature. It is a state of cause and effect. The verse I refer to is in 2d Corinthians; and I take it from the immensely improved text in this instance of the Revised Version—the 13th verse of the 3d Chapter of 2d Corinthians: 'We all, with unveiled face, reflecting in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are changed with the same image from glory to glory even as by the Lord, the Spirit.' Observe: 'We are changed.' The mistake we have been making is that we have been trying to change ourselves. This is not possible. We are changed into some image. Now, if we are to get the benefit of the relief that these words ought to give to the man who has been spending half his nights and half his life in a frenzied struggle for holiness without having fulfilled the necessary conditions, let us carefully mark the condition demanded. For that condition being fulfilled, we are infallibly changed into the same image. That we reflect in a mirror the glory of the Lord? What is the glory of the Lord? The word 'glory' suggests effulgence—radiance. It recalls the halo that the old masters delighted to paint around the heads of their saints and Ecce Homos. But this is all material. What does that halo, that radiance, symbolize? It symbolizes the most radiant and beautiful thing in man, as in the Man Christ Jesus; and that is, Character. The glory of Christ is in character. I make a challenge. Does any man know anything more glorious in man or in God than character? God's Name was His Character—Himself. Do not be misled by the vagueness of that word 'glory' in modern usage. We lose the force of it because we do not employ the word in current speech. When it is in your mind, substitute 'character' for 'glory.' 'We all, with unveiled face, reflecting in a mirror the character of the Lord, are changed into the same image from Character to Character.'

How to get this character: Stand in Christ's presence and mirror his character, and you will be changed in spite of yourself, and unknown to yourself, into the same image from character to character. Every man is a reflector. There was a savior of Jonathan about David, and a savior of David about Jonathan. You sometimes see husband and wife, after a half century of fellowship, changed entirely into the same flange. They have gone on reflecting one another so often, without trying, and perhaps even trying to prevent it, that they have become largely made up of the same qualities and characteristics. That is the grand doctrine of influence—that we become like those whom we habitually associate with.

What, then, is the practical lesson? It is obvious. Make Christ your most companion. Be more under His influence than under any other influence. Five minutes spent every morning in the companionship of Christ, if it is face to face and heart to heart, will change the whole day, will make every thought and feeling different, will enable you to do things for His sake that you would not have done for your own sake, or for any one's sake. And the supreme and sole secret of a sanctified nature and a Christlike character and life, is to be ever with Christ and reflecting Him—catching His nature, His mind and spirit, insensibly and unconsciously, by mere proximity and contagion.

It is not necessary that He should be with us in the body in order to influence and help us. The influence of a friend is not lost by reason of his absence. Christ is the best friend we ever had, and because we do not see Him is reason why we should love Him more and have more longing for that time when we shall meet Him face to face and see Him as He is. Soon after beginning this department in the Telegram I received a letter from a venerable brother Christian, in which he spoke words of sympathy and comfort. I had never seen him. He wrote me again and again and the more intense was my desire to meet the friend whom I had never met. We have met, but are not stronger friends than we became in our first correspondence.

Drummond tells of a beautiful character—"One of the loveliest which had ever bloomed on this earth. It was the character of a young girl. She always wore about her neck a little locket, but nobody was allowed to open it. None of her companions ever knew what it contained, until one day she was laid down with a dangerous illness, when one of them was granted permission to look into the locket; and she saw written there: 'Whom the secret of her beautiful life. She had been changed into the same image.'"

So we all may be changed into this image and be his reflectors if we will only stand before Him, learn our lessons from Him, and do them as He directs. J. C. Troy. Asheville, N. C.

THE EASTERN FIREMEN

Went Through the State Villifying Greensboro.

The disgraceful scenes enacted in this city by Newbern and Goldsboro boys as they left town Saturday morning, it seems, were kept up all the way. The Durham Sun referred to the matter and said that the boys were prepared to defend their sign with rocks, etc., as they passed there, and the Sunday morning News and Observer contained the following:

"We Have Been Robbed," was the strange device a piece of white cloth, nailed to the side of a Southern Railway car from Greensboro, bore yesterday.

In the car were the Goldsboro and Newbern fire companies, returning from the state firemen's tournament at Greensboro.

And they were hot—these fireladdies. Not so much because of the weather, but from warmth generated by the fires of indignation burning within them.

"We were robbed, boldly robbed—" a Goldsboro man began.

"Oh, say touched," broke in another.

"Hoodooed, sandbagged," yelled a third.

"No," continued the first man, "Those words are not strong enough. Robbed is the only word that does justice to the occasion. And that's what it was—pure downright robbery."

"Oh, don't be too hard on 'em," said another, "that's all they got—what they took from us—those two reel races. If they'd played fair we'd simply have walked away with everything. As it was we won five prizes."

"We mean that," they yelled, pointing to the piece of cloth flapping its "We've-been-robbed" device in the breeze. And it really looked as if they did, for just above it, at the window sat a big fellow with a watchful eye. In the window were half a dozen large flint rocks and a rusty coupling pin.

"This," he said, patting the largest rock, which surely must have weighed a dozen pounds or more, "is my thirteen-inch gun, and the son of a gun that lays a hostile hand on this sign will catch it where my baby caught the bite. And we kills Winston folk on general principles, wherever we see 'em."

Eczema! The Only Cure.

Eczema is more than a skin disease, and no skin remedies can cure it. The doctors are unable to effect a cure, and their mineral mixtures are damaging to the most powerful constitution. The whole trouble is in the blood, and Swift's Specific is the only remedy which can reach such deep-seated blood diseases.

Eczema broke out on my daughter, and continued to spread until her head was entirely covered. She was treated by several good doctors, but grew worse, and the dreadful disease spread to her face. She was taken to two celebrated health springs, but received no benefit. Many potent medicines were taken, but without result, until we decided to try S. S. S., and the first bottle was finished, her head began to heal. A second bottle cured her completely and left her skin perfectly smooth. She is now sixteen years old, and has a marvellous growth of hair. Not a sign of the dreadful disease has ever returned.

H. T. SHORE, 2701 Lucas Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

Don't expect local applications of soaps and salves to cure Eczema. They reach only the surface, while the disease comes from within. Swift's Specific is the only cure and will reach the most obstinate case. It is far ahead of all similar remedies, because it cures cases which are beyond their reach. S. S. S. is purely vegetable, and is the only blood remedy guaranteed to contain no poison, mercury or other mineral.

ECZEMA

Itching, Burning Skin, Sores, Scabs, Pimples, Red and Raw Skin, and Eruptions
that Ruin and Itch.

Caused by Bad Condition of the Blood.

Cured by Botanic Blood Balm (B.B.B.).

Sample Bottle sent Free.

If you have tried doctors, salves, washes, external and internal remedies, and still have Eczema, Psor-ias, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, then B.B.B. will cure you by literally driving the bad poisoned blood out of the body, bones, and entire system, and this is the only perfect cure. Other remedies fail to cure because they fail to drive the bad blood out. B.B.B.
is an internal, powerful blood remedy that is meant to, and does, cure after all else fails.

HAVE YOU itching, burning, scaly, crusted, or raw skin, blisters containing pus or watery fluid, skin red, and an itching heat, with or without sores, on legs, arms, hands, neck, face? Then take B.B.B. which will cure you, leaving the flesh free from blisters, sores, or itching of any kind.

Chronic Eczema is a severe form of skin inflammation, with great redness and a raw surface. It may last for years with intervals of partial recovery, but easily returning. It often attacks the ears and neck. We have seen the ears burnt and crusted as a piece of raw meat, and the whole side of the neck a surface of raw, inflamed flesh, pitiable to hold. We know of six cases like this cured by B.B.B. during the past year (1898).

Any form of Eczema is due to diseased blood.
Get the diseased blood out with B.B.B., and you are cured. B.B.B. is perfectly safe to take by old or young, and acts on the blood.

Eczema on Children. When teething, children are very frequently afflicted with Eczema.
Sore eruptions, and a yellow crust forms upon the skin. Give the child mild doses of B.B.B., and the sores will soon heal.

Sample Bottle Free. Send 2 stamps for free

A REINCARNATED DOG.

He Hadn't Lost His Human Traits In
The Process.

"You can't tell me there is nothing in the theory of reincarnation," remarked a traveling man, "for I know there is. I was down in Florida recently, and in St. Augustine I saw a snob dog—an out and out snob. His name is Towser, and he is just a common yellow dog, lives in the street and belongs to no one.

"In the summer, when no wealthy northern people are in the town, he plays with all the middle class children
and dogs and will greet patronizingly
the middle class men and women who know him. But in the winter, as soon as the season begins, he attacks himself to some rich New York family,
loafs in their yard, tags their footsteps
or carriages all about the city, attends them to church and home again and so far as he is able makes himself one of them. For his meals he has been forced to resort to the back yards of a plain, good woman, who pities him and feeds him regularly. He is friendly with her at his eating hours, but never so far forgets himself as to wag his tail
at her on the street or when he is with more pretentious people.

"When society functions take place in St. Augustine, there is Towser. Golf matches, afternoon teas, picnics or boating parties, all are attended by him with most conventional regularity. He never greets any ordinary acquaintance when thus socially engaged and has even been known not to eat for several days when a fashionable wedding was on his mind. With the swell dogs of St. Augustine Towser never has any rows, having, no doubt, studied the politic art of being agreeable, but with commoner cuts he is irritable and defensive. That dog has been human in his time, and I'd give a penny to know who he was."—Indianapolis Journal.

AMONG THE CANNIBALS.

A Traveler's Experience With the Man Eaters of West Africa.

Mr. P. A. McCann has had 19 years'
actual residence in west Africa. Mr.
McCann's seven years' trading and residence with the cannibal tribes of the French Gaboon probably form the most exciting part of his experiences. He got friendly with them and thoroughly studied their habits and customs. They quite believed that the white men ate white men as they themselves ate their fellow blacks. A big chief offered Mr.
McCann the smoked thigh of a native.
This was considered a gracious act. To refuse it would be unfriendly. Mr. Mc-Cann was in a dilemma.

But he feigned illness, said he was not eating just then. The chief eventually put the matter off good naturedly
by saying he supposed the white man preferred white man to eat instead of black man. "The Mpongwe," said Mr.
McCann, "are in ferocious and pugnacious qualities second to no other tribe in Africa. Their villages mostly consist of a single street from 600 to 1,500 yards long, on each side of which are the houses. In these houses they cook, eat and sleep and keep their store of provisions, the chief of which is smoked game and smoked human flesh, hung up to the rafters.

"Although ferocious and quarrelsome
to a degree, they are very industrious.
They show considerable skill in the manufacture of pottery, and the designs of their cooking pots, water jars, tobacco pipes and palm wine bottles are extremely artistic. In ironwork they are also skillful workers. Although they kill game for food, they much prefer human meat to any other."—London Globe.

Is It Right for an Editor to Recommend Patent Medicines?

From Sylvan Valley News, Brevard,
N. C.

It may be a question whether the editor of a newspaper has the right to publicly recommend any of the various proprietary medicines which flood the market, yet as a preventive of suffering we feel it a duty to say a good word for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. We have known and used this remedy in our family for twenty years and have always found it reliable. In many cases a dose of this remedy would save hours of suffering while a physician is awaited. We do not believe in depending implicitly on any medicine for a cure, but we do believe that if a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy were kept on hand and administered at the inception of an attack much suffering might be avoided and in very many cases the presence of a physician would not be required. At least this has been our experience during the past twenty years. For sale by C. E.
Holton, druggist.

Hoax—"Those cigars of Tiletist's are awful. Wonder what brand he smokes?" Joak—"Mother Hubbard,
I think." Mother Hubbard?" "Yes;
loose wrapper, you know."

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. C. E. Holton
will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel complaint and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and reliable.

It's pretty easy for a fellow to laugh

Remarkable Rescue

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold which settled on her lungs;
she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine
would cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at C. E. Holton's drug store. Only 50 cents per bottle at C.
E. Holton's drug store.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr.
John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows:
"I was in a most dreadful condition
of mind. My skin was almost yellow, eyes
sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—
gradually growing weaker day by day.
Three physicians had given me up.
Fortunately, a friend advised trying
Electric Bitters; and to my great joy
from first dose. The first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued
their use for three weeks and am now
a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim. No one should fail to try this drug. Only 50 cents per bottle at C.
E. Holton's drug store.

"I was in a most dreadful condition
of mind. My skin was almost yellow, eyes
sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—
gradually growing weaker day by day.
Three physicians had given me up.
Fortunately, a friend advised trying
Electric Bitters; and to my great joy
from first dose. The first bottle made a
decided improvement. I continued
their use for three weeks and am now
a well man. I know they saved my
life, and robbed the grave of another
victim. No one should fail to try
this drug. Only 50 cents per bottle at C.
E. Holton's drug store.

All weak places in your system effectually closed against disease by DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They cleanse the bowels, promptly cure chronic constipation, regulate the liver, and fill you with new life and vigor. Small, pleasant, sure; never gripes. Howard Gardner.

A funny thing about the cab driver's business is that he's always making the most money when he drives the most of his patrons away.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures dyspepsia because its ingredients are such that it can't help doing so. "The public can rely upon it as a master remedy for all disorders arising from imperfect digestion."—James M.

of Health, N. Y. Howard Gardner.

"Line of Parade"

For the Firemen's Tournament was published in the papers with one exception, and that was, instead of stopping at the court house, they ought to have added: From there everybody will go to the Greensboro Pressing Club and have their suit or uniform neatly cleaned and pressed.

Now don't forget this. You will want to look neat and clean, so profit by the above. Phone 162 will get us.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Capt. J. M. Burton, of Summerfield, was here today.

Col. Jas. T. Morehead went to Gibsonville at noon.

W. A. Lash, of Walnut Cove, was in the city today.

The street force resumed work on the hill on lower South Elm today.

The county commissioners held a regular meeting today to transact
routine business.

Miss Lillian M. Wright left this morning for Wilkesboro and Jefferson to spend a few weeks.

Dr. W. E. Evans, after spending a week in Thomasville, returned to Roland today on the noon train.

Lindsay Hopkins, of Reidsville, passed through the city today going to Piedmont Springs to spend a week.

Miss Bertha Isely, who has been visiting the family of L. M. Clymer, returned to her home in Burlington today.

Miss Irene Boissau, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jentry, left at noon today for her home in Richmond.

for Cary to enter school. His brother John E. Crutchfield returned to Wake Forest today.

The man Dixon who assaulted Master of Trains McCarthy, of the Southern, about a week ago, was fined $15
in the mayor's court Saturday afternoon.

The life of R. v. Jas. Needham, the oldest Methodist preacher in North Carolina, is now in press. Agent
wanted. Write to John G. Pepper, Pilot Mt., N. C.

G. T. Kearsley, real estate dealer, is preparing to close his office for two months and take a vacation at his former home in Virginia. He will return to Greensboro and remain in his office for the fall trade.

Rev. W. L. Grissom returned at noon today from Morganton where he presided at Morganton district conference. He says the conference was a great success, every member and a large number of visitors being in attendance.

Charles S. Cude, who has held a position with the Wakefield Hardware Company for some time, has resigned his place there to accept one with the Crutchfield Hardware Company. He has the place made vacant by the resignation of Zeb Crutchfield at the latter place.

Misses Mabel and Georgia Klutts,
of Salisbury, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jordan, will return home tonight. Misses Mabel and Maude Jordan, of High Point, who have also been spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Jordan, will return home tonight.

Misses Nora and Bessie Motley, of South Boston, Va., spent gala week with their aunt, Mrs. C. A. Bray, as did her sister, Miss Nannie Greenwood, of Birch, Va. They all returned to their homes today accompanied by Mrs. C. A. Bray, who will spend several weeks visiting relatives.

Attention Firemen!

COLORED A. & M. COLLEGE.

The Summer School to Close Tomorrow Night.

Tomorrow the three weeks' session
of the summer school at the A. and M.
College closes.

It has been very successful and satisfactory from beginning to end, both in point of attendance and work done
in the school room.

The management of the normal is much gratified at the results; while those in attendance are delighted and satisfied with the benefits which they have reaped from coming to the school.

Last Friday night Dr. J. E. Dellinger gave quite an entertaining address to an appreciative audience on
"The Negro in the American-Spanish War."

Tonight Prof. J. P. Morris, of Bennet College, will deliver the last of the series of lectures as laid out in the course for the benefit of the teachers.

Tomorrow night the session will close with a grand literary and musical entertainment to which the public is invited to be present. Exercises will begin promptly at 8:30 o'clock.

Pocket Book Stolen.

A colored boy this morning stole a pocket book from Green McMichael's dray. The purse, which belonged to Mrs. J. C. Gentry, contained $3 and was taken from a small satchel or handbag which Green was taking to the depot, with some other baggage.
Green chased the little coon, but the latter had a decided advantage in that he was about 65 years the younger,
and he easily outdistanced his somewhat decrepit pursuer.

Colored Firemen's Tournament.

The colored fireman's tournament
opens tomorrow at Washington, N. C.
Greensboro's colored company, Excelsior Reel Company, No. 2, left this morning to attend the festivities, and the Statesville "Defiance" company passed through at noon. We understand that the Greensboro company is in fine trim and expects to win some prizes.

Causes of Loss of Hair

Dr. Sabouraud, the eminent French Dermatologist, says that 95 per cent of hair losses are the results of dandruft. The antiseptic action of

SEVEN SUTHERLAND SISTERS'

preparations kills microbes and removes dandruff. Their constant use for a period will, by acting directly on the hair bulbs, furnish nourishment, vitality and growing power to the impoverished roots
and hair shafts, resulting in complete restoration.
